TUMBLEWEED VIRTUAL MUSIC FESTIVAL 2023 SPONSORSHIPS

Dear Tumbleweed Supporter:

Each Labor Day weekend since 1997, the Three Rivers Folklife Society has sponsored the Tumbleweed Music Festival in Richland. For the 27th annual festival in 2023, we'll again be having a live festival in Richland's Howard Amon Park. We'll also be maintaining a virtual element of the Tumbleweed festival at our festival website, tumbleweedmusicfestival.org. Financial support for the festival comes from many sources, including the City of Richland, grants, patron donors, sales of festival merchandise, and sponsorships by community businesses and organizations. We would like to invite you to be a part of this Labor Day weekend tradition by becoming a sponsor of the festival. All business sponsors are listed on the festival website. The Three Rivers Folklife Society is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization, and all donations are tax-deductible.

This year's festival will present over 100 performances and workshops, featuring traditional and contemporary folk music, blues, bluegrass, Celtic, Cajun, nautical, western, country, jazz, and more! The performances will include a Friday Night concert featuring younger, higher-energy performers; a Saturday Night concert featuring three headline acts, and the traditional Sunday Night theme concert, with performances of songs each relating to our festival theme "Good Times." Our performers are primarily from the Pacific Northwest, but also have several states and two other countries represented.

Below, you will find a chart listing all the various sponsorship opportunities and levels. Please consult this chart, then complete the form on the last page and return it and a check payable to Three Rivers Folklife Society for your chosen support amount to:

Thank you in advance for your very generous support!
